AGREEMENT ON ACADEMIC EXCHANGE BETWEEN L'ÉCOLE DES HAUTES ÉTUDES EN SCIENCES SOCIALES AND THE UNIVERSITY OF TOKYO

This agreement is concluded between L'École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales, France, of one part and the University of Tokyo, Japan, of the other part, both institutions being convinced that academic exchange and cooperation will promote the development of research and other academic activities in each institution.

Article 1.
The parties hereto agree to promote cooperation in academic fields of mutual interest through the following:
1. Exchange of faculty members and researchers
2. Exchange of graduate students
3. Conducting joint research
4. Holding of lectures and symposia
5. Exchange of academic information and publications

Article 2.
Matters pertaining to the implementation of an exchange based on the preceding Article 1 shall be negotiated and agreed upon between the institutions or organizations (for example: Research Centers, Institutes, Faculties etc) of the parties that carry out the specific project(s) hereunder.

Article 3.
In the event that results of research projects carried out in the framework of Article 1 above may be likely to be the subject of intellectual property rights, the parties shall discuss in good faith before the start of this research project. They shall agree in a separate document about the conditions regarding the aspects of intellectual property rights, and in accordance with the policies of each party.

Article 4.
This Agreement remains effective for a period of five years starting from the latter date of the signing indicated below by the parties hereto. Its period of validity may be extended by a supplementary agreement signed by the two parties. Either party may, by giving six months written notice to the other party, terminate this Agreement during its period of validity.
The parties hereto establish this agreement by duly signing it as of the respective dates written below.
