MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

between

ECOLE DES HAUTES EN SCIENCES SOCIALES
FRANCE

and

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK AT STONY BROOK
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The Ecole des hautes études en sciences sociales [School for Advanced Studies in the Social Sciences], hereinafter referred to as EHESS, and the State University of New York at Stony Brook, New York, United States of America, hereinafter referred to as SBU, in recognition of their common interests in developing bilateral relations and convinced that cooperation between institutes of higher learning contributes to cultural enrichment, scientific progress, and the consolidation of friendship between countries, agree to establish the following Memorandum of Understanding.

I

1. This Memorandum will promote activities in the following areas:

   - Exchange of students
   - Exchange of faculty and staff
   - Instructional and cultural programs
   - Collaboration of academic degree programs
   - Collaborative research

II

1. Prior to implementation of any of the above referenced cooperative and collaborative activities, parties shall enter into writing signed by the responsible authority of each Institution which sets forth the terms and conditions of the activity.
III

1. All activities developed under the auspices of this Memorandum will comply with the procedures, policies, and practices of each Institution as well as all applicable laws and regulations of both countries.

2. Both Institutions acknowledge that the visit by faculty and students from one Institution to the other shall be subject to the entry and visa regulations of France and the United States of America, and shall comply with the regulations and policies of EHESS and SBU.

IV

1. This Memorandum is established for a period of five years, effective on the date of signing.

2. In order to enhance the efficacy of their cooperative activities, EHESS and SBU agree that it shall be possible to introduce changes and additions to the Memorandum by means of mutually agreed upon additional written clauses.

3. At the end of each five-year period, this Memorandum will be automatically renewed by mutual agreement for an additional five years, unless EHESS or SBU provide written notification of a decision of non-renewal prior to the expiration date. A minimum period of six months notice will be required from either party wishing to terminate the Memorandum. In the event of termination, all commitments to students participating in the program will be honored by relevant parties.

STUDENT EXCHANGE APPENDIX

to the
MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between
and
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK AT STONY BROOK

In accordance with Section II of the Memorandum of Understanding between the École des hautes études en sciences sociales [School for Advanced Studies in the Social Sciences] (hereinafter YCU) and the State University of New York at Stony Brook (hereinafter SBU), the following mechanisms designed to encourage and facilitate the exchange of doctoral students ("visiting students") are hereby established:

1. Students are to be exchanged for one full academic year or for one semester unless otherwise agreed.

2. Starting in the 2021-2022 academic year and continuing for the duration of this agreement, up to three (3) visiting students per year from SBU can be hosted to study at EHESS, and up to three (3) visiting students from EHESS per year can be hosted to study at SBU.

3. Visiting students from EHESS will be hosted by SBU as J1 Exchange Visitors (Scholars) and will follow associated guidelines.

4. Initial selection of students will take place at the home institution; however, the host institution reserves the right to reject candidates.

5. Student application should be received at the host institution at least six (6) months in advance of the start date. Eligible students are graduate students who are enrolled in Ph.D. program at their home institution.

6. The visiting students who participate in this exchange program pay the enrollment fees in their home institution and are exempted from paying enrollment fees in the host institution.

7. The host institution will provide no financial support for the visiting students.

8. The visiting students are responsible for arranging the accommodation and their own housing and meal costs.
9. Visiting students shall be required to enroll in the mandatory insurance program of the host institution and shall be responsible for all deductible costs related to health care services.

10. The host institution provides academic assistance to the visiting students during their stay. Students shall have a specific objective sponsored by the host institution, such as to conduct research, teach, or consult.

11. The visiting students may be able to audit classes at the host institution with departmental consent.

12. The visiting students will not be degree candidates at the host institution.

13. The visiting students shall comply with all rules and regulations of the host institution, including relevant academic and conduct requirements.

14. Neither institution shall be liable for the acts of the other or for the acts of students participating in this exchange.

15. The host institution shall assist visiting students to obtain visas and other documents required for entry to the host country. To comply with host country regulations, exchange students may be required to provide a guarantee that they have financial resources sufficient to meet all expenses.

16. This Appendix shall be in effect for the same period as the Memorandum of Understanding and may be adjusted in writing upon mutual agreement of the two parties. For matters not covered in Appendix, the universities shall consult their Memorandum of Understanding.

The following parties have executed this Appendix as of the dates set forth below.
