

FRANCO-RUSSIAN DOUBLE MASTER'S DEGREE IN SOCIOLOGY

FRANCO-RUSSIAN MASTER'S PROGRAM: EHESS-HSE MOSCOW (MOSCOW SCHOOL OF ADVANCED STUDIES IN ECONOMICS)

From the academic year 2018-2019, EHESS and the Moscow Higher School of Economics (HSE, Государственный Университет "Высшая школа экономики" known as "Vyshka") offer a bi-national (Franco-Russian), two-year dual master's degree.

In their second year, students enrolled in the EHESS Master's degree in Sociology study at HSE in Moscow, for one or two semesters (S3/S4). As for the students enrolled in the HSE's "Comparative Social Research" master's degree, they study one or two semesters at EHESS in Paris during their second year.

At the end of the program, students earn the two Master's degrees awarded by the two institutions.

MAIN FEATURES OF THE PROGRAM

- The possibility to study for one or two semesters in the partner institution
- The possibility to choose among a wide array of courses
- A challenging research supervision by two professors - one from each institution
- A dual qualification delivered by each of the two institutions

ORGANIZATION OF THE PROGRAM

EHESS students selected for the program will complete their first year at EHESS and their second year (or one semester during the 2nd year) at HSE. HSE students selected for the program will complete their first year at HSE and their second year (or one semester during the 2nd year) at EHESS.

The dual degree is designed along the following scheme: EHESS students will benefit from the teaching of a visiting professor from HSE, and HSE students will be required to validate a course delivered by a visiting professor from EHESS.

REGISTRATION AND TUITION FEES

- Students will be administratively enrolled in both institutions for the duration of the Program. They will acquit the tuition fees due at their home university for the two years of the Program.
- HSE students are eligible for a mobility grant from the French government. Students are to apply for this grant personally.
- Students will assume the financial burden incurred by their stay in the host institution, corresponding to their expenses, including textbooks, accommodation, food, travel, social security, and all other personal and medical expenses. Students will be expected to have social security coverage and to be insured for civil liability in compliance with each country's legal regulations.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

Students are to personally deal with all administrative formalities for staying in the partner country, according to their personal situation and the existing procedures in the two countries. EHESS provides support in the visa application process in cooperation with Campus France Moscou.

ACCOMMODATION ASSISTANCE

- HSE examines the possibility for students from EHESS to stay in one of its university residences, depending on the number of rooms available.
- EHESS prioritizes HSE students enrolled in the Program for the rooms reserved in the CROUS residences annually (invites@ehess.fr).

LANGUAGE COURSES

The Russian language courses offered at HSE for EHESS students completing their second year at HSE in Moscow, and the French language courses offered at EHESS for EHESE students in their second year at EHESS may also be integrated into the students' curriculum. Yet these courses do not grant credits, therefore they cannot be part of the 120 ECTS credits required to obtain both degrees.

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION

- 10 students will be admitted annually (i.e. 5 students per institution)
- Admission is examined upon submitting an application. Selection will be made on the basis of students' personal application file. The grades obtained during M1 will be particularly taken in account.
